AromaTherapy Wellness Treatment $65/$85

Feeling burnt out? If you've been running on empty, an aromatherapy massage could be just what you need to recharge your batteries. Essential oils can do everything from energize to de-stress or re-invigorate as well as fight common aches and pains, leaving you relaxed, limber and totally chilled out. In this treatment, 8 different oils are applied along the spine and to the feet using light gliding and sedating strokes.

You can choose a 30 min treatment or a 50 min treatment. You will remain facedown on your stomach for the entire treatment. This session will not address specific muscle soreness or use muscle manipulation. It is strictly a relation body treatment.
